

ADELAAR

Beyond Komodo and Whale Sharks Maumere to Bali

Maumere to Bali | Palue, Komodo National Park, Banta, Sangeang and Moyo

Steep volcanic walls covered in soft corals and gorgonians open the trip at Palue, where pygmy seahorses turn up with a bit of luck.

Komodo National Park follows, with action-packed reefs bathed in a dazzling explosion of colourful fish life and a whole day for manta rays.

At dusk the mandarin fish perform their mating rituals.

The seamounts and drift dives of the Gili Lawa islands are deservedly among the signature dives of the archipelago.

Komodo dragons wait on Rinca, and a viewpoint gives a glorious sunset over the whole national park.
