

ADELAAR

Raja Ampat Central and South

Sorong to Sorong | Misool and the Dampier Strait

Misool and the Dampier Strait, with extra time to dive both properly.

Walls in remote Misool are covered in soft corals and schools of fish, and a legendary cleaning station is visited often by giant manta rays, jacks, barracudas and reef sharks.

In Yangeffo, schools of barracudas, jacks and trevallies patrol the currents over a colourful reef.

Oceanic and reef manta rays gather at a world-renowned cleaning station, and pristine hard corals shelter giant clams and bumphead parrotfish.

At night, walking sharks and wobbegong sharks come out.

GOOD TO KNOW

On land and on the way

Water sports

For non-divers, as well as snorkelling, the boat has stand-up paddle boards and a two-person kayak. Not every area is suitable, and the cruise manager finds the right times and places.

Small groups

Adelaar takes a maximum of 8 guests, with a Western cruise manager who is also a PADI dive instructor, a divemaster and a crew of ten.

Check in

Our team collects you from the airport or your hotel and takes you to the harbour where Adelaar is anchored. On the day before departure you can be taken to a hotel.

Check out

After breakfast on the last day you disembark, with an airport or hotel transfer. Please arrange your flight with the no-fly rule in mind.
