About the itinerary

Begin your diving journey in Malé, the vibrant capital of the Maldives, and set course for the untamed beauty of the southern atolls—a path less traveled, designed for true explorers and thrill-seeking divers.

As you venture beyond the well-known central atolls, each mile takes you deeper into raw, untouched territory. In Vaavu and Meemu, ride the currents through thrilling channels where grey reef sharks, eagle rays, and barracudas swirl in spectacular formations. Further south, Laamu and Gaafu unleash a kaleidoscope of coral-covered walls, buzzing with marine life and shimmering in electric blue water.

The adventure intensifies in legendary Fuvahmulah—an oceanic drop-off where tiger sharks, thresher sharks, and oceanic mantas roam free. No cages. No crowds. Just you, the deep, and nature at its wildest.

Your journey concludes in the southernmost Addu Atoll, home to graceful mantas gliding over massive cleaning stations and the hauntingly beautiful British Loyalty wreck—now a living reef bursting with color.

This is not your average dive trip. It's a full-on descent into the wilder side of the Maldives—raw, remote, and utterly unforgettable.
