ANNE BONNY

Raja Ampat Wayag

Sorong to Sorong | Dampier Strait, Penemu, Kawe and Wayag

Wayag, the famous lagoons in the north of Raja Ampat, has a secret manta cleaning point where graceful mantas glide between two recently found cleaning stations.

A shark sanctuary in the heart of the archipelago has around 20 friendly juvenile sharks swimming by the beach.

On the way, lush black coral forests and gorgonian sea fans decorate the sloping rocks, with large schools of fish and unusual nudibranchs.

In the Dampier Strait, fish thunder, the loud booming sound of large numbers of fish moving rapidly through open water, engulfs you.

From a vantage point above, you may see the shapes of mantas in the shallow turquoise water below.
