BAJAU

Forgotten Islands and Hammerhead Encounters aboard Bajau

Alor to Ambon | Banda Sea and the Forgotten Islands

The deep waters of the Banda Sea offer the chance to meet large pelagic species, including the majestic hammerhead shark.

This chain of isolated islands, often called the Forgotten Islands, has dramatic volcanic landscapes, untouched beaches and pristine reefs.

Serua rises steeply from the sea with incredible marine biodiversity and scenic views of an active volcano.

Snorkelling in the warm volcanic waters around Manuk is famous for bubbles and sea snake encounters, with thousands of sea birds overhead.

The historic Spice Islands finish the voyage, with vibrant coral reefs, colonial Dutch forts and Banda Neira, once the world's only source of nutmeg.
