BAJAU

Komodo Leisure Snorkelling aboard Bajau

Labuan Bajo to Labuan Bajo | Komodo National Park

Komodo National Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and no trip to Komodo is complete without a hike to see the famous Komodo dragons, the largest lizard in the animal kingdom.

Under the surface, the Coral Triangle is one of the richest ecosystems on earth, with over 1,000 species of tropical fish and 260 species of coral.

Snorkelling is the draw, with a superb reef where manta rays and turtles can often be spotted.

Channels between small islands in the north are a snorkeller's paradise of vibrant coral, abundant sponges and a variety of fish.
