BAJAU

Komodo Leisure Snorkelling aboard Bajau

Labuan Bajo to Labuan Bajo | Komodo National Park

Swimming with manta rays is one of the must-dos in Komodo, and over a superb reef in crystal-clear water manta rays and turtles can often be spotted.

Komodo sits in the Coral Triangle, with over 1,000 species of tropical fish and 260 species of coral, much of it visible from the surface.

The channels between the small islands in the north are a snorkeller's paradise, with huge clouds of schooling anthias and fusiliers.

On land, the famous Komodo dragons share the hike with monkeys, wild boar, buffaloes and deer.
