

MALDIVES BLUE FORCE ONE

7 Atolls Deep South Up

Kooddoo to Male | Gaafu Alifu, Laamu, Thaa, Meemu, Vaavu, South Male and North Male

Whale sharks at night in Gaafu Alifu and Thaa open this route, which works north from the Southern Hemisphere to the central atolls.

Schools of jacks and sharks, mola mola and sailfish make up the wilder side of it.

The Laamu and Meemu channels hold pelagics and sharks, and the manta cleaning stations come with nurse sharks at night.

A barbecue lunch on a desert island and a visit to a fishing village round it off when the weather allows.
