Raja Ampat and Misool

Sorong to Sorong | Raja Ampat and Misool

The sheer abundance of marine life, healthy colourful reefs and diverse dive sites in Raja Ampat will leave even the most experienced diver wanting more.

In Misool, mantas fly by the coral gardens, and large aggregations of anchovies attract hunting mobulas, jacks and snappers.

In Piaynemo a pristine hard coral garden sits below limestone islands, which you can see from above after a short trek to a viewpoint.

The Dampier Strait has an excellent muck night dive, and the exotic, enchanting islands are stunning both above and below the water.
