

CARPE DIEM

Deep North 12 Nights aboard Carpe Diem

Male to Male | Lhaviyani to Haa Alifu

Manta cleaning stations, shark dives, turtles and channels start things off in Lhaviyani, in the far northern atolls that see few boats.

Noonu follows with shark encounters, walls, drop-offs and caves, and Shaviyani has pinnacles, caves and channels with manta rays, turtles and whale sharks.

Further north, Haa Alifu brings wrecks and coral gardens, with manta rays and whale sharks.

The finale is Baa, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve with thilas, channels and coral gardens where manta rays, whale sharks and turtles gather, and the bay itself can be snorkelled when the rangers say it is active.
