

JAKARE

Raja Ampat Central & North

Sorong to Sorong | Wayag, Kawe, Pienemu and the Dampier Strait

Schools of snapper, trevally and barracuda, reef sharks and wobbegongs fill the Dampier Strait, and that is only the start of a trip that adds Misool in the south to the north and centre of Raja Ampat.

At Wayag a secret spot has mantas, and Kawe has more mantas at cleaning stations.

A wall and sandy valley make for easy diving.

Misool takes the longest stay, with baby sharks in the nursery by the rangers station and superb diving at Daram, at the far east.
