

JAKARE

Spice Island - Ambon to Ambon

Ambon to Ambon | Nusa Laut, Suanggi and the Banda Islands

The Banda Islands are famous as the only place where nutmeg grew, and for exceptional diving.

Large pelagics are likely, including schools of hammerheads, mobula rays, dogtooth tuna and fusiliers.

In the middle of the Banda Sea, a remote island rises as pinnacles with hammerhead sharks and other pelagics.

Another island offers slopes and pinnacles with more chances of hammerheads, and healthy reefs on slopes and walls make good snorkelling too.

Banda harbour has mandarin fish and other critters, and ashore there is a fort and a museum telling the history of the Spice Route.
