Raja Ampat opens with the fabulous reefs of the Dampier Strait and Misool, and a night dive that is one of the best in the region, on a muck diving site.

Halmahera follows with current-swept sites, big schools of jacks, surgeonfish and tuna, and a wall with 1,000 barracuda.

The Lembeh Strait is a muck diving paradise full of strange critters.

In the Tangkoko Nature Reserve, tarsiers, small nocturnal primates found on only a few islands in Southeast Asia, wait at the end.
