Whalesharks & Wrecks - 10 Days / 9 Nights

Manokwari to Manokwari | Cenderawasih Bay, Kwatisore and Numfor

Cenderawasih Bay, in West Papua, is the place where whale sharks gather at the fishing outriggers.

At Kwatisore they come to feed on scraps from the night catch of little anchovies, and you share the water with them.

Wall diving in the atolls is followed by a stunning hard coral garden in shallow water and islands alive with schooling fish and reef sharks.

The bay is also full of Second World War history, from Japanese wrecks to the remains of a Zero plane.

At Pulau Rouw you snorkel over three P-38 planes lying in front of the beach in just 1 metre of water.
