

PINDITO

Banda Sea

Banda Sea | Nusa Laut, Banda Neira, Koon, Misool and Dampier Strait

The vast Banda Sea lies in the heart of Indonesia, with an off the beaten path feel.

The diving is diverse and spectacular, and the volcanic islands rise to the surface from deep sea water, so the chances of seeing large pelagics are good.

Off Nusa Laut, a vibrant reef of coral gardens is full of fish, with schools of surgeonfish, big eye jacks and barracuda, and hammerhead sharks if you are lucky.

Critter hunters will find frogfish, scorpionfish and pipefish hidden in the white sand.

Banda Neira adds history, where the remains of the old colonies are still to be found.
