

SEAHORSE

Halmahera and Raja Ampat

Ternate to Sorong | South Halmahera and Misool

Halmahera has seamounts, blue clear water and intense fish life, and the trip moves on to the manta country of Misool.

Many Halmahera seamounts have a rocky base and plenty of soft coral covered bommies, with blacktip sharks patrolling most of them and the walking shark on night dives.

Tuna, Spanish mackerel and giant trevally are part of the show, along with Napoleon wrasse and bumphead parrotfish.

Misool is excellent for wide angle shots, encounters with mantas and massive schools of fish.

Ashore, small blacktips swim in one metre of clear water in a natural shark nursery.

Your route

STOP 1

From Ternate

The trip heads south from Ternate past the cone shaped volcanic islands of Tidore, Moti and Makian.

STOP 2

Goraichi islands

After the first night you dive for two days around the Goraichi islands, where sea mounts and rocky islets attract great marine life.

STOP 3

Patienti Strait and Goraichi

The islands of Saleh and Kusu, with some smaller ones, partly close the Patienti Strait between Halmahera and Bacan, forcing water through with currents that bring a lot of life.
Sea mounts and rocky islets around the Goraichi islands form the dive sites and attract great marine life.

STOP 4

Pulau Pisang

Pulau Pisang in the Maluku Sea has dive sites with a mix of ridges, slopes, small walls and plateau, with plenty of fish and colourful coral reefs.

STOP 5

Misool

The last four days are in Misool in the south of Raja Ampat National Park, at Daram, Fiabacet, Wayil and the Boo area.
After the last dive on the penultimate day the boat sails back to Sorong.

STOP 6

Misool on land

At the rangers' station you snorkel in front of their beach in a natural shark nursery, where small black tips swim in one metre of clear water.
A short hike leads to the viewpoint over the "love lagoon", a lagoon in the shape of a heart.

GOOD TO KNOW

About the diving

Halmahera

Many Halmahera dive sites are seamounts with a rocky base and plenty of soft coral covered bommies. Blacktip sharks patrol most sites, the walking shark can be seen on night dives, and tuna, Spanish mackerel and giant trevally are part of the show. Napoleon wrasse, bumphead parrotfish, groupers and schools of surgeonfish and spadefish are well represented, along with critter dives and fringing reefs.

Misool

Misool in the south of Raja Ampat is excellent for wide angle shots, encounters with mantas and massive schools of fish. The underwater landscape is mostly rocky with ridges and rock formations, and the colourful reefs show an abundance of soft corals and huge gorgonians. Macro subjects are plentiful too, with pygmy seahorses, tiny crabs and nudibranchs.
