From Male to the equator, this is a hand-picked selection of the best dive sites in the Maldives, ending at the tiger sharks of Fuvahmulah.

Channels are full of grey reef, blacktip and coral sharks, and one is home to about thirty grey reef sharks.

Manta cleaning stations line the way, and at night whale sharks can be watched and snorkelled with.

The far south brings a big-fish dive with a chance of thresher sharks, mola mola, tiger sharks and hammerheads.

Diving rules
